

AMBULANCE STRIKE TEAM

Summer Semester Online Course

Ambulance Strike Team Provider - Distance Learning Online Course

This course is offered to meet the requirements for the California EMSA Ambulance Strike Team Provider (ASTP) position. The course also contains all of the educational prerequisites for the Ambulance Strike Team Leader (EMS 316) course. Students will participate in an 8 week, 16-hour, self-paced online class designed to prepare them for response as a team member (provider) on an ambulance strike team or medical task force. The ASTP course is approved for 16 hours of continuing education credits for EMT-1B and EMT-P and one AHC college unit.

- Online Registration: May 1 through June 10, 2006
- Class Dates: June 19 through August 9, 2006
- Location: Allan Hancock College Online Blackboard System
- Course Name: EMS 315 - Ambulance Strike Team Provider
- Ticket Number: 0104
- Cost: $26 Tuition + $14 Health Fee + $1 Student Rep. Fee = $41

How To Register

Students must enroll at Allan Hancock College and register for this course, either in person at AHC, or use the online admissions and registration system by clicking on the link below. Note: When registering for AHC courses, the Health and Student Rep. fees are only required once per semester, not for each course.

http://www.cccapply.org/Applications/California_Community_College/apply/Allan_Hancock_College.html

Remember, this is a two step process. You must apply for admission to the college and then register for the course. Please read and follow all directions carefully.

For more information or questions contact Mike McDonough, AST Instructor: (805) 878-6259
mmcdonough@hancockcollege.edu